

Save the Date for “Outta Space”

The Connecting to Collections partners are pleased to announce an upcoming workshop on Best Practices in Storage and Space Planning for Ohio’s Cultural Heritage Institutions.

The Ohio Connecting to Collections Survey identified inadequate storage space for cultural heritage collections as the NumberOne preservation problem statewide.

Come hear professionals from the library, museum, archives, historical society and conservation communities discuss how they have addressed space concerns.

Registration for the conference is FREE. There may be a small fee for box lunches and/or a list of nearby restaurants will be available to attendees.

Two sessions will be offered:

Southern Ohio “Outta Space” Conference

Tuesday, April 17, 2012

Cincinnati Museum Center

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

In conjunction with the 2012 Ohio Museums Association Annual Conference

Northern Ohio “Outta Space” Conference

Tuesday, May 15, 2012

Akron-Summit County Public Library

9:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Mark your calendar now! Details and Registration information will be available in early February. For further information, please contact Tom Clareson at tom.clareson@lyrasis.org.

Conference Sponsors: State Library of Ohio, Ohio Museums Association, Ohio Historical Society, Ohio Local History Alliance, Ohio Preservation Council

Conference made possible by federal Institute of Museum and Library Services funds, awarded by the State Library of Ohio.