

Call for Applicants - Archives Leadership Institute 2020

May 24-30, 2020

- Are you passionate about the archives profession?
- Are you looking for a way to expand your leadership skills?
- Do you crave a challenge that will empower you to affect change?
- Would you like to expand your network of peers while building relationships that will impact you for the rest of your career?

We are seeking 20 archivists to participate in the next Archives Leadership Institute. The ideal applicant will have an established career foundation, a strong grasp on archival theory and practice, strong leadership potential, a history of professional involvement, and a collaborative and innovative spirit. Successful applicants will demonstrate a commitment to representation and/or support of diversity within the profession, and have the ability to influence change within the profession. The program will begin on Sunday evening, May 23, and finish by noon on the following Saturday, May 30. Participants must attend the entire Institute. The cost of the Institute is $800 and includes registration, lodging and meals, except for one dinner. 2 full tuition scholarships ($800) and 11 partial ($250) tuition scholarships are available on need basis.
