

Preparing 21st Century Learners 2012 Workshop

Tuesday, July 17th from 1:00pm—4:00pm at the Muskingum University Library.

MUSKINGUM UNIVERSITY IS PROUD TO HOST THE 4TH IN A SERIES OF WORKSHOPS GEARED TOWARD OPENING THE LINES OF COMMUNICATION BETWEEN K-12 AND ACADEMIC LIBRARIANS TO PROMOTE IDEAS THAT WILL LEAD TO BETTER PREPARED STUDENTS

This year 's workshop will expand on the previous workshop by offering information related to numbers 7-10 of the 21 Essential things. <http://learningcommons.infohio.org/>

Featured presenters will discuss the following:

Google Aps

Schology

Senior Student Projects

Introducing students to college library websites....and much more!

We will also be sharing collaborative projects, technology uses and initiatives to improve our students ' skills so that they are prepared for success in higher education.

To register contact Cherie Bronkar at 740-826-8017 or cbronkar@muskingum.edu. Registration is free and light refreshments will be provided.

We highly encourage librarians and faculty to attend together.

Collaboration is the key to our students ' success.

Muskingum University Library
163 Stormont St.
New Concord, OH 43762

Attend the workshop for free. CEU's available via MVESC and Graduate Credit available through Muskingum University. (Graduate Credit requires a small fee-contact us for details)

Muskingum University

163 Stormont St.
New Concord Ohio 43762

Contact Cherie Bronkar for details

Phone: 740-826-8017
cbronkar@muskingum.edu