

Kids & Teens EAT FREE

Food That's in When School is Out...

Save Money On
Groceries This Summer

- Call 1-855-570-7377 to find the closest serving site to you.
- All families welcome. No sign up necessary. Anyone 18 and under can eat healthy food and have fun.
- Safe locations include pools, parks, churches, schools, rec centers and more.

Find a Location in Your Area:

<https://oh.cnpcares.com/summer/SfspFoodServByCnty.asp>

Eligible participants are children and teens age 1-18 as well as individuals age 19-21 who have a mental or physical disability and are enrolled during the school year in a public or private non-profit school program. Meals are provided through the Ohio Summer Food Service Program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employee.

#scorefreefood

