UPPER SANDUSKY LIBRARY TO HOST BOOK SIGNING WITH LINDA CASTILLO ON NOVEMBER 1 AT 6:30 P.M.

On Wednesday, November 1, at 6:30 p.m., the Upper Sandusky Community Library invites readers to attend a book signing and presentation with Linda Castillo, New York Times bestselling author of Amish murder mystery/thrillers. Castillo will speak about her journey to become an author and will take questions from the audience. She will also discuss her newest book, Down a Dark Road, which will be available for purchase that evening. This event is free and open to the public. The Upper Sandusky Community Library is located at 301 N. Sandusky Ave. For more information, contact the library at 419-294-1345.

Linda Castillo knew from an early age that she wanted to be a writer—and penned her first novel at the age of thirteen. She's published thirty books for three New York publishing houses and won numerous industry awards, including a nomination by the International Thriller Writers for Best Hardcover, the Golden Heart, the Daphne du Maurier Award of Excellence, and a nomination for the prestigious Rita.

Her debut thriller, SWORN TO SILENCE, garnered starred reviews from Library Journal, Publisher's Weekly, and Booklist—and spent four weeks on the New York Times bestseller list. The following books in the series also hit the NYT and USA Today lists and became international bestsellers. SWORN TO SILENCE was adapted into a two hour original movie re-titled AN AMISH MURDER and starring Neve Campbell as Kate Burkholder. Her latest book, DOWN A DARK ROAD, hit bookstores in July.

In her spare time, Linda enjoys trail riding, and dabbles in barrel racing. Originally from Ohio, she now resides in Texas with her husband, two rescued Blue Heelers, and two Appaloosa horses. She's currently at work on her next novel, a thriller set in Amish Country and featuring Chief of Police Kate Burkholder.
