Circulation Team Leader

We love helping people! If you do too, we'd love to work with you!

As a circulation team leader, you'll be part of a hard-working, fun-loving group that jokes about our unofficial motto: "Teamwork makes the dream work!" It's in this team environment that you'll play a vital role in developing staff and getting library materials into the hands of our patrons. Your abilities to promote and advance change are critical to this position.

Our award-winning library has been an important part of the community since its founding in 1803, and we're proud to combine traditional library services with the innovative. What do we offer? Lots of food and fun, plus a supportive culture that includes leadership and development opportunities. Join us as we work together to be the library our patrons deserve!
